The course will be taught by Peer Academic Leaders (PALS) and faculty, staff and/or graduate students to provide guidance, raise awareness and understanding of students' majors and help support collaborative and co-curricular opportunities available within the School/College.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Recognize and utilize the various academic and personal student resources available at UTA, including those related to financial literacy and wellness.
- Apply various learning and study strategies to their college classes.
- Recognize the unique characteristics of their major, including relevant co- and extra-curricular opportunities, and understand the significance of that discipline in today’s world.
- Identify the role of faculty as experts in providing guidance in academic planning, experiential learning and career goals related to the student’s major.

Descriptions of major assignments and assessments:

Assignments:
Course grades will be determined according to your successful participation and completion of the following activities:

<table>

Participation - 35%
Active participation is a very important piece of the learning process in this course and takes on many different forms. Active participation requires preparation. You are expected to be prepared for each class session and actively participate in class discussions and activities.

Participation includes:

Readings & Other Course Prep for Synchronous Meetings – come to class prepared to make connections between the readings and your own lived experiences. For each reading, come prepared to share at least one thing you enjoyed about the reading and one discussion question for the class. Review additional course materials prior to class time as requested.
Asynchronous Modules – Timely completion of the Canvas modules will count as your participation for the asynchronous course meetings. Be sure to make note of due dates and times for each module. All sections of the module must be completed to earn your participation grade for the class meeting. Asynchronous modules are due by Sunday at 11:59 p.m. during the week they are assigned.

In-Class Activities – active involvement and engagement is expected in this course. In class activities are designed to help you engage with the course topics. Fully participating in these exercises is required. Activities are created to support your growth and development as a student. The more work you put into the activities, the more you will get out of the course material.

Class Discussions – discussions are opportunities for you to enhance your critical thinking skills, gain new insights and understanding from your peers, and find ways to effectively communicate what you have learned from reading and reflecting on course material. I encourage you to bring to class your comments and questions that offer different perspectives, contribute to moving the discussion and analysis forward, build on other comments and insights made by others in the class, and moves beyond the typical “I feel” or “I think” statements that are not grounded in a deeper reflection on why we have had a particular reaction to course material. The course instructors do not have all the answers in these discussions, and you are encouraged to talk to each other and ask each other questions as we process the material together.

Assessment Surveys – completion of in-class surveys is expected as part of participation in this course. Your responses to the questions will not impact your grade, but you will need to fill each survey completely and provide proof of submission in order to receive full participation credit.

Other Participation Activities – as discussed throughout the semester.

NOTE: Engaging in certain behaviors can negatively impact your participation grade. These behaviors include:

- Talking or being distracting during class meetings
- Arriving late or leaving early from class meetings
- Sleeping in class or working on other class assignments during class
- Using electronic devices (phones, laptops, etc.) during class meetings
- Overall being disrespectful to instructors, PAL(s), staff, speakers, guests, fellow students, or other visitors to the classroom
- Not completing the in-class assessment surveys

Maverick Advantage Writing Assignment - 15%
After discussion on class related to the five distinguishing activities, students will submit a writing assignment about the activities. Specific assignment details can be found in Canvas.

Virtual Event/Resource: Department or College - 10%
Students must select one virtual college or department sponsored campus event or one virtual university sponsored academic event to attend during the course of the semester. Students have flexibility in selecting the events. Please refer to the UTA events calendar for a complete list of upcoming events (https://events.uta.edu/). For the assignment, students must write a summary of their experience. Specific assignment details can be found in Canvas.

Assignments - 40%
Other assignments may be given by the Peer Academic Leader and/or faculty member. You will need to review your course timeline to know the due dates for these assignments. Specific assignment details can be found in Canvas.

Grading Information

Grading:
The Student Success course is a one-credit hour course and is graded on a letter grading basis. Students are required to attend all class meetings in order to successfully meet both attendance and participation requirements.

This course is graded on a scale of A, B, C, F, P, W and Z. A grade of D is not awarded in this course. A grade of Z for the course will not be awarded without prior consultation with the instructor. The student is responsible for initiating this conversation with the instructor. Incompletes will be given only for such reasons as medical emergencies, serious emotional distress, etc. The instructor reserves the right to make the final decision a grade of Z.

<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>70% - 79%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>

</tr>
</tbody>

If you would like to drop the course, you will need to get permission to do so and work with your academic advisor on that process. If you fail the UNIV 1131 course, you will need to re-enroll in the course in the next semester. Because the class is required, you will be unable to graduate without passing this course and successfully meeting the credit requirements established by the university. Students are allowed 3 attempts to pass the UNIV 1131 course. If you do not pass the course in 3 attempts, you will need to appeal to your department chair and the Office of New Student courses.

Attendance:
Attendance in this course plays an essential role in supporting your transition into UTA. Therefore, you are expected to attend or engage in every class session, whether the session is face-to-face (F2F) or virtual. While this expectation exists, we understand that life happens. If you do miss class, you will need to communicate with your PAL about making up the missed class. See below for specific attendance policies for the different course modalities.

1) In-Class Sessions (F2F or Synchronous): You are expected to attend every class session that is happening in real time – this includes F2F and Synchronous class sessions. If you are not able to attend a class, refer to the “Missed Class” part of this policy.

2) Asynchronous Class Sessions: For the asynchronous class sessions, logging in to the course alone does not constitute attendance – your participation in the course modules and activities demonstrate your engagement in the course and therefore is counted as your attendance. Students who do not participate will not be considered in attendance for that lesson. Incomplete modules will be considered a class absence. If you are not able to complete a module, refer to the “Missed Class” part of this policy.

3) Impact of Missed Classes/Modules on your Grade: Having any combination of more than two F2F/Synchronous class session absences or incomplete asynchronous modules without consulting with your Peer Academic Leader will result in a 10-point reduction of the final letter grade per additional absence.
   - For example, if your final course grade is a 92% and you have missed 4 F2F/Synchronous course sessions, the first two absences will not affect your final grade. However, the third and fourth absences will result in a 10-point deduction per absence, so your final grade would be reduced to 72%.

All class content can be accessed virtually for students. If you miss a class, it will be your responsibility to connect with your PAL to access the missed material.

Late Arrival/Early Departure: You are considered late to class if you arrive after class has started. Coming to class late or leaving class early (up to 5 minutes) three times equals one full absence. Arriving late or leaving early beyond the five-minute mark will result in a full absence.
Missed Class Policy: If you are not able to attend a F2F or synchronous class session, or if you are unable to complete an asynchronous learning module, you will need to communicate with your PAL to discuss your absence. Students are expected to contact the Peer Academic Leader in advance or as soon as possible after an absence.

Making Up Absences or Missed Work: Opportunities to make up a missed class may be offered to students by their PAL with approval of the Instructor of Record:
- All class content will be available virtually. If you are unable to attend a F2F or synchronous class session, you will need to communicate with your PAL and make up the missed content and work virtually. The content must be completed within the agreed upon deadline or it will not count to make up the absence.

At the University of Texas at Arlington, taking attendance is not required, but attendance is a critical indicator in student success. Each faculty member is free to develop her or his own methods of evaluating students’ academic performance, which includes establishing course-specific policies on attendance. UTA does not require instructors to take attendance in their courses, the U.S. Department of Education requires that the University have a mechanism in place to mark when Federal Student Aid recipients “begin attendance in a course.” UTA instructors will report when students begin attendance in a course as part of the final grading process. Specifically, when assigning a student a grade of F, faculty report the last date a student attended their class based on evidence such as a test, participation in a class project or presentation, or an engagement online via Canvas. This date is reported to the Department of Education for federal financial aid recipients.

Students who refuse to wear a facial covering in class will be asked to leave the session by the instructor, and, if the student refuses to leave, they may be reported to UTA’s Office of Student Conduct.

Emergency Exit Procedures:

Should we experience an emergency event that requires evacuation of the building, students should exit the room and move toward the nearest exit, which is located [insert a description of the nearest exit/emergency exit]. When exiting the building during an emergency, do not take an elevator but use the stairwells instead. Faculty members and instructional staff will assist students in selecting the safest route for evacuation and will make arrangements to assist individuals with disabilities.
