SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

- Due to the COVID-19 events, this course switched to online modality as of March 23, 2020. As a result, the assignments from March 23 to the end of the semester will be adjusted to reflect this change. Please note we would try to make minimum changes to the syllabus content as marked by the strikethrough along with the associated change. Please prepare for the online course delivery by reviewing the Canvas Student Orientation.
- Canvas is now integrated with Teams. Learn how to Install Teams, and How to Join a Teams meeting.
- You may have to prepare a space at home to study and review these suggestions for staying focused.
- Review the technical requirements for software that is used in your course (e.g., install the Respondus Lockdown browsers will work on your iPad, laptop or and desktops and remember to use them during exams. Please note Lockdown browsers do not work on iPhones, Chromebooks and Android systems.

I. COURSE OBJECTIVE AND DESCRIPTION

This seminar is a study of corporate finance theory at the doctoral level. The relevant literature can be divided into several sections, such as agency costs, market efficiency, asset valuation, capital budgeting, capital structure, and dividend policy. Any student passing this course should have an in-depth knowledge of the corporate finance literature.

II. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The students would have a good understanding of (1) Theory of Corporate Finance, (2) Work on a doctoral quality term paper, (3) Present the paper to their peer group, and (4) Practice writing and presentation skills.

III. CLASS CONDUCT

Student preparation and participation form an integral part of this course. All students should come fully prepared with the study material scheduled for a class meeting. During student presentations, a lively discussion of the topic is expected through intelligent class participation.

CAUTION - A NOTE ON PLAGIARISM: To plagiarize is to claim originality to work or idea belonging to somebody else. Any reference to external sources, either verbatim or paraphrased, must be... appropriately cited. Please familiarize yourself with definitions and examples of plagiarism as applicable at UTA by visiting the appropriate websites. Any form of plagiarism may lead to a failing grade in the class in addition to other penalties.

Walk Rule: If the instructor is late for more than 15 minutes, please leave the class quietly.

For further details and additional information, please refer to the enclosed syllabus addendum.

IV. COURSE TEXTS

Course Text

Assigned articles.

Financial Calculator: Texas Instruments™ BA II Plus, Texas Instruments™ BA II Plus Professional or equivalent. I will demonstrate the use of Texas Instruments™ BA II Plus. Please feel free to use a different brand or model if you are confident with using it as long as it is at least functionally equivalent to Texas Instruments™ BA II Plus and does not have programming or mass storage capability. The use of iPhone™, iPad™, or similar device in a financial calculator emulation mode is not allowed.

V. GRADING

Grades will be based on your performance on two in class exams, term paper, class presentation and class participation using the following weighting:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Weightage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Mid-term exam</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Term Paper</td>

Please note that the final exam will be comprehensive. There is no provision for makeup or extra points. The instructor may take into consideration student inputs regarding peer presentations.

VI. KEY DATES

First day of class: January 21, 2020

Census date: February 5, 2020

Spring Break: March 9 to March 22, 2020

Class delivery online due to Covid19: March 23, 2020

Last day of class: May 8, 2020

Final Exam for FINA 6311: Thursday, May 14, 2020; 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm
VII. TERM PROJECT

The term project should be original work of the individual student deserving the quality of a doctoral-level seminar class. Please note that it should be a new independent project exclusively dedicated to FINA 6311 and not a continuation of some other project that the student might have worked on in the past or would like to add-on to an unfinished project already turned in another class. Either way, each student is encouraged to discuss the project with the instructor as early as possible to meet the stated deadlines.

While the electronic copy could be mailed before the start of class, the hard copy of the outline is to be handed in at the beginning of class on February 27, 2020. The completed papers for all students (electronic copy and hard copy) are due at the beginning of class on April 9, 2020. Each student will be required to present his/her term paper to the class as assigned by the instructor. Please proofread your paper thoroughly to eliminate common mistakes. Please make a copy for yourself before turning in. The copies of the outline, as well as completed papers, turned in to the instructor will not be returned to the student. Please turn in both hard copies and electronic copies of the outline and the paper before their respective deadlines.

Please note that this is a nice opportunity to get acquainted with the wealth of resources at UTA. In addition to having access to most of the leading journals and professional publications in Finance and Real Estate, UTA students also have access to WRDS databases. The students are expected to use these facilities and develop an academically rich document as their term project. Students are also encouraged to pursue working on the term paper along with the help of the instructor even after the submission deadline to achieve the ultimate goal of the publication in a high-quality peer-reviewed academic journal that distinguishes the student from other candidates in their respective career paths. Depending on future publication potential, which will vary from case to case, the instructor may provide additional feedback on further improving the quality of the paper after the close of the semester.

The instructor reserves the right to make additional changes to the assignments or grading schema as needed to complete this course on time, and respond to university policies.
University Policies

UTA students are encouraged to review the below institutional policies and informational sections and reach out to the specific office with any questions. To view this institutional information, please visit the Institutional Information page (https://resources.uta.edu/provost/course-related-info/institutional-policies.php) which includes the following policies, among others:

- Drop Policy
- Disability Accommodations
- Title IX Policy
- Academic Integrity
- Student Feedback Survey
- Final Exam Schedule

Academic Integrity: Students enrolled in all UT Arlington courses are expected to adhere to the UT Arlington Honor Code:

I pledge, on my honor, to uphold UT Arlington’s tradition of academic integrity, a tradition that values hard work and honest effort in the pursuit of academic excellence.

I promise that I will submit only work that I personally create or contribute to group collaborations, and I will appropriately reference any work from other sources. I will follow the highest standards of integrity and uphold the spirit of the Honor Code.

UT Arlington faculty members may employ the Honor Code as they see fit in their courses, including (but not limited to) having students acknowledge the honor code as part of an examination or requiring students to incorporate the honor code into any work submitted. Per UT System Regents’ Rule 50101, §2.2, suspected violations of university’s standards for academic integrity (including the Honor Code) will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. Violators will be disciplined in accordance with University policy, which may result in the student’s suspension or expulsion from the University. Additional information is available at https://www.uta.edu/conduct/.

Drop Policy: Students may drop or swap (adding and dropping a class concurrently) classes through self-service in MyMav from the beginning of the registration period through the late registration period. After the late registration period, students must see their academic advisor to drop a class or withdraw. Undeclared students must see an advisor in the University Advising Center. Drops can continue through a point two-thirds of the way through the term or session. It is the student's responsibility to officially withdraw if they do not plan to attend after registering. Students will not be automatically dropped for non-attendance. Repayment of certain types of financial aid administered through the University may be required as the result of dropping classes or withdrawing. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships (http://wweb.uta.edu/aao/fao/).

Disability Accommodations: UT Arlington is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of all federal equal opportunity legislation, including The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), The Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act (ADAAA), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. All instructors at UT Arlington are required by law to provide “reasonable accommodations” to students with disabilities, so as not to discriminate on the basis of disability. Students are responsible for providing the instructor with official notification in the form of a letter certified by the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD). Students experiencing a range of conditions (Physical, Learning, Chronic Health, Mental Health, and Sensory) that may cause diminished academic performance or other barriers to learning may seek services and/or accommodations by contacting:

The Office for Students with Disabilities, (OSD)  www.uta.edu/disability or calling 817-272-3364.

Counseling and Psychological Services, (CAPS)  www.uta.edu/caps/ or calling 817-272-3671.

Only those students who have officially documented a need for accommodation will have their request honored. Information regarding diagnostic criteria and policies for obtaining disability-based academic accommodations can be found at www.uta.edu/disability or by calling the Office for Students with Disabilities at (817) 272-3364.

Title IX: The University of Texas at Arlington does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities, genetic information, and/or veteran status in its educational programs or activities it operates. For more information, visit uta.edu/eos. For information regarding Title IX, visit www.uta.edu/titleIX.

Attendance: At The University of Texas at Arlington, taking attendance is not required. Rather, each faculty member is free to develop his or her own methods of evaluating students’ academic performance, which includes establishing course-specific policies on attendance. As the instructor of this section, I reserve the right to take attendance every class period including mid-term and final exam dates, or at random, depending on time availability as well as the educational needs of the students enrolled in this section.

Student Support Services: UT Arlington provides a variety of resources and programs designed to help students develop academic skills, deal with personal situations, and better understand concepts and information related to their courses. Resources include tutoring, major-based learning centers, developmental education, advising and mentoring, personal counseling, and federally funded programs. For individualized referrals, students may visit the reception desk at University College (Ransom Hall), call the Maverick Resource Hotline at 817-272-6107, send a message to resources@uta.edu, or view the information at http://www.uta.edu/universitycollege/resources/index.php Electronic Communication: UT Arlington has adopted MavMail as its official means to communicate with students about important deadlines and events, as well as to transact university-related business regarding financial aid, tuition, grades, graduation, etc. All students are assigned a MavMail account and are responsible for checking the inbox regularly. There is no additional charge to students for using this account, which remains active even after graduation. Information about activating and using MavMail is available at http://www.uta.edu/oit/cs/email/mavmail.php.

Campus Carry: Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes as prohibited. Under the new law, openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit http://www.uta.edu/news/info/campus-carry/.

Student Feedback Survey: At the end of each term, students enrolled in classes categorized as “lecture,” “seminar,” or “laboratory” shall be directed to complete an online Student Feedback Survey (SFS). Instructions on how to access the SFS for this course will be sent directly to each student through MavMail approximately 10 days before the end of the term. Each student’s feedback enters the SFS database anonymously and is aggregated with that of other students enrolled in the course. UT Arlington’s effort to solicit, gather, tabulate, and publish student feedback is required by state law; students are strongly urged to participate. For more information, visit http://www.uta.edu/sfs.

Final Review Week: A period of five class days prior to the first day of final examinations in the long sessions shall be designated as Final Review Week. The purpose of this week is to allow students sufficient time to prepare for final examinations. During this week, there shall be no scheduled activities such as required field trips or performances; and no instructor shall assign any themes, research problems, or exercises of similar scope that have a completion date during or following this week unless specified in the class syllabus. During Final Review Week, an instructor shall not give any examinations constituting 10% or more of the final grade, except makeup tests and laboratory examinations. In addition, no instructor shall give any portion of the final examination during Final Review Week. During this week, classes are held as scheduled. In addition, instructors are not required to limit the content to topics that have been previously covered; they may introduce new concepts as appropriate.

Emergency Exit Procedures: Should we experience an emergency event that requires us to vacate the building, students should exit the room and move toward the nearest exit, which is located to the left as you step out from the classroom into the hallway. When exiting the building during an emergency, one should never take an elevator but should use the stairwells. Faculty members and instructional staff will assist students in selecting the safest route for evacuation and will make arrangements to assist handicapped individuals with disabilities. (http://www.uta.edu/police/Evacuation Procedures.pdf)

Emergency Phone Numbers: In case of an on-campus emergency, call the UT Arlington Police Department at 817-272-3003 (non-campus phone), 2-3003 (campus phone). You may also dial 911. Non-emergency number 817-272-3381
