C. Required Textbooks and Other Course Materials

Note: Powerpoints are available for each chapter of this text (Coady and Lehmann) covered in the course should text costs be a consideration.

D. Additional Recommended Textbooks and Other Course Materials

E. Descriptions of Major Assignments and Examinations

Note: Please keep in mind through all written assignments to orient discussions and insights to both the core and advanced specialty competencies expected for your selected advanced specialty track.

Core competency 2.1.2 sub point 3; core competency 2.1.3 sub points 1-3; core competency 2.1.10 c- sub point 2-3

Discussion Papers:

Final grades will be partially based on four bi-weekly discussion papers of one of the theories presented in class over the past two weeks. These four papers should be no less than five (3) and no longer than six (4) pages each, from our discussions of the theories as applied to the semester case occurring during the previous two weeks. As with all papers, your discussion will need to be supported from the readings and other external sources. Note that you will need to refer to the class readings, and you will lose points if you do not. They need to be properly cited according to APA requirements, and will be graded on the basis of correct formatting. At the beginning of the semester all of you will have been given as case (or cases) that we as a class will be following throughout the course. Each week we will take as much time as possible to discuss the case and your thoughts about how the intervention model could be applied to the case. This will give you some foundation for how you can discuss the case in your discussion paper. Your discussion papers are to be submitted every second week (the due dates are listed in the course outline), so it is a good idea to write your thoughts down as they are being discussed. You are only required to submit one report on one intervention model that has been covered in class. Please do not write a paper on an intervention model that has not been discussed in class. Please note that the papers are to be submitted through the Online Course Learning System on the dates specified in the outline below. No late reports will be accepted! These will count for 50 points each, for a total of 200 points. The outline you must use for the discussion papers is as follows:

1. Provide a clear statement as to which issue of Laura’s is being discussed
2. State which intervention model you are discussing
3. What are the key features of the intervention model; This includes the theory behind the model and what the model says about human nature, how problems develop, and how the model is designed to address those problems.
4. Provide a brief statement about how you will apply the model
5. Give a brief statement about which aspects of the model would be most helpful, and why (or why not)

Core competency 2.1.2 sub point 3; core competency 2.1.3 sub points 1-3; core competency 2.1.10 c sub point 2-3

The grading rubric detail is as follows:
Core competency 2.1.1 sub points 2-3; core competency 2.1.3 sub points 1-3; core competency 2.1.6 sub points 1-2; core competency 2.1.10 b sub points 1-4; core competency 2.1.10 c sub points 1-4F.

Course Specific Policy on Attendance and Participation:

Attendance and/or classroom participation: is counted at up to 50 points, in the grading criteria. Two to three “in class” activities may be assigned that are minor projects, to permit the class to develop additional understanding of the course content. Please be as consistent as possible throughout the course. Please be as consistent in class participation as possible.

Core competency 2.1.2 sub point 3 ; core competency 2.1.3 sub points 1-3; core competency 2.1.10 c- sub point 2-3

F. Attendance

At The University of Texas at Arlington, taking attendance is not required but attendance is a critical indicator in student success. Each faculty member is free to develop his or her own methods of evaluating students' academic performance, which includes establishing course-specific policies on attendance. However, while UT Arlington does not require instructors to take attendance in their courses, the U.S. Department of Education requires that the University have a mechanism in place to mark when Federal Student Aid recipients "begin attendance in a course." UT Arlington instructors will report when students begin attendance in a course as part of the final grading process. Specifically, when assigning a student a grade of F, faculty report the last date a student attended their class based on evidence such as a test, participation in a class project or presentation, or an engagement online via Canvas. This date is reported to the Department of Education for federal financial aid recipients. As the instructor of this section.
At The University of Texas at Arlington, taking attendance is not required. Rather, each faculty member is free to develop his or her own methods of evaluating students' academic performance, which includes establishing course-specific policies on attendance. As the instructor of this section, Classroom sections: course specific policy on attendance

1. Students are expected to be on time, attend and become actively engaged in all class sessions, and stay until the completion of the class and contribute to, and maintain, a positive learning environment throughout.

2. Students are to complete reading assignments and be prepared to participate in class, and participate in discussions, or discussion groups and small group activities. Expect an active learning environment.

Courses using an online shell will also require students participate in the online discussion groups and prompts per class, as outlined in the online companion course shell. Online alternative, course content or assignments will be made available, for scheduled course dates where either the face to face class (due to whether, etc.) or instructor may not be available to meet (professional travel obligations). Multiple absences, or nonparticipation, will, likely result in a letter grade deduction from the final calculated grade of the class (i.e. 3 or more). Greater absence or non-participation, than this, will likely result in not receiving a passing grade for the course.

1. All written assignments are due at the beginning of class period of the date specified on the course outline. Emailed or digitally papers will not be accepted (unless requested in this format in advance). Any technical issues with online paper submission, if offered, will result in an alternate method of either email or paper submission. Late papers will not be accepted.

2. Assignments are to be completed correctly at the time of submission. No papers or assignments may be resubmitted once a grade is given.

3. Any disruption of the classroom learning environment (through actions in or out of class) will result in the identified student(s) being required to leave the class, without possibility of being readmitted, and cancellation of class work scores for the disrupted class session(s), with a recorded failing semester grade and possible referral for adjudication.

4. All graduate students have ascribed to the NASW code of ethics at admission and are responsible for adhering to standards of professional conduct with colleagues/faculty and elsewhere in the graduate program. Differences (if any) arising from the course or grade are to be resolved if possible with the instructor, before considering alternatives.

5. Please turn off all cell phones, pagers, or communication devices while in class, or the classroom. Laptops may be used as these contribute to the learning environment and are logged to course content and may be requested to be turned off during class activities or if disruptive to discussions. Non course activities such as surfing, emailing, working on other course assignments, will be treated as non participation and are disruptive to a positive learning environment. The instructor may request laptops be turned off at any time, the student, students or course environment becomes disengaged. Please do not audio or video the course, or presenters, without permission of the presenter(s). Though it remains, legal, it also remains unethical to do so.

6. Early packing up, walk outs, surfing etc. on computers without accessing and using online content, and cell phone use in the classroom, will be counted as absences, or non participation, or both. Please request permission of the instructor for recording of lectures or content, not doing so will result in referral to Professional standards committee, and possible adjudication.

G. Grading

All papers must be grammatically correct using APA style. Papers with many grammatical errors and misspellings will not receive a satisfactory grade.

Grading scheme:

- Discussion papers: 80% (200 points)
- Class participation: 20% (50 points)

Final grades will be according to the UTA Graduate School guidelines:

- 4.0 (225-250) A =90% or above
- 3.0 (200-224) B =80% to 89%
- 2.0 (175-199) C =70% to 79%
- 1.0 (150-174) D =60% to 69%
- 0.0 (0-149) F = all below 60%

Students are expected to keep track of their own performance throughout the course and seek guidance from available resources (including the instructor), if their performance drops below satisfactory levels. The syllabus does not include extra credit assignments.

Students are expected to keep track of their performance throughout the semester and seek guidance from available sources (including the instructor) if their performance drops below satisfactory levels; see "Student Support Services," below.

H. Make-Up Exams

There are no make-up assignments for this course. I will make every effort to provide you with the feedback you need to progress through the course. Please note: NO INCOMPLETES WILL BE GIVEN FOR THIS COURSE.

I. Course Schedule

As the instructor for this course, I reserve the right to adjust this schedule in any way that serves the educational needs of the students enrolled in this course. Should technical problems arise with course delivery, alternate but equivalent assignments may be given so long as the overall learning objectives, general time frame and grading structure for the course are sustained. Though topics given in the course schedule will be covered (by discussion, application, etc.), these may or may not be reviews of readings which are expected to be completed prior to class.

N. Emergency Exit Procedures

Should we experience an emergency event that requires us to vacate the building, students should exit the room and move toward the nearest exits, which are the stairwells located at either end of the adjacent hallway. When exiting the building during an emergency, one should never take an elevator but should use the stairwells. Faculty members and instructional staff will assist students in selecting the safest route for evacuation and will make arrangements to assist individuals with disabilities.

O. Drop Policy

Students may drop or swap (adding and dropping a class concurrently) classes through self-service in MyMav from the beginning of the registration period through the late registration period. After the late registration period, students must see their academic advisor to drop a class or withdraw. Undeclared students must see an advisor in the University Advising Center. Drops can continue through a point two-thirds of the way through the term or session. It is the student’s responsibility to officially withdraw if they do not plan to attend after registering. Students will not be automatically dropped for non-attendance. Repayment of certain types of financial aid administered through the University may be required as the result of dropping classes or withdrawing. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships (http://wweb.uta.edu/aao/fao/).

P. Disability Accommodations

Instructions on how to access the SFS for this course will be sent directly to each student through MavMail approximately 10 days before the end of the term. Each student’s feedback via the SFS database is aggregated with that of other students enrolled in the course. Students’ anonymity will be protected to the extent that the law allows. UT Arlington’s effort to solicit, gather, tabulate, and publish student feedback is required by state law and aggregate results are posted online. Data from SFS is also used for faculty and program evaluations. For more information, visit http://www.uta.edu/sfs.
W. Final Review Week

For semester-long courses, a period of five class days prior to the first day of final examinations in the long sessions shall be designated as Final Review Week. The purpose of this week is to allow students sufficient time to prepare for final examinations. During this week, there shall be no scheduled activities such as required field trips or performances; and no instructor shall assign any themes, research problems or exercises of similar scope that have a completion date during or following this week unless specified in the class syllabus. During Final Review Week, an instructor shall not give any examinations constituting 10% or more of the final grade, except makeup tests and laboratory examinations. In addition, no instructor shall give any portion of the final examination during Final Review Week. During this week, classes are held as scheduled.
